

Part 2: Not on Your Own

"Not On Your Own" delves into the pitfalls of independence using the story of David and Bathsheba. It highlights the dangers of isolation and the biblical imperative for community and accountability.

Key Scripture: 2 Samuel 11:1-4, 11; 12:1, 7-9

Discussion Questions

Ice-Breaker

- Have you ever experienced a time when community support made a significant difference in your life? Share that experience.
- What's one thing you appreciate about our church community?

Deep Dive

- Discuss the story of David and Bathsheba. How did David's isolation contribute to his downfall?
- In what ways does 2 Samuel 12 challenge the notion of independence? What does it teach us about accountability?
- How can being part of a community prevent the kind of moral failures seen in David's life?
- Reflect on the modern drive towards independence. How does it compare to biblical teachings about community?

Application

- What practical steps can you take to ensure you have a 'Nathan' in your life who will speak truth into it?
- Discuss how you might prioritize community over personal desires in the coming week.