

Part 2: The Legacy Call

Our decisions determine the direction and the quality of our lives. How can we make better decisions in the year ahead, and make better calls? In this series we'll explore four questions you can ask to help you make better calls in the year ahead.

Discussion Questions

- What's your current favorite book, movie, or TV series? Why is it your current favorite?
- Can you identify a decision in the past that served as the beginning of a new chapter in your life?
- Is there a decision that you feel comfortable sharing, that started a chapter you would rather forget?
- Read Genesis 39:1-10. What stands out to you about how Joseph handled this situation?
- Do you know anyone whose story, through no fault of their own, set them up to write a story characterized by bitterness and resentment, but they decided to write their story in a healthy direction?
- Think of an area of your life where the decisions you are making now could significantly impact your next five years. Would you say you are currently making decisions that will likely create the story you want to tell? Explain.
- Is there a decision you're struggling with at the moment? Are you willing to find someone to help you navigate through the decisions?
